Glossary

First things first - this is what we mean when we use these words:

We and us means RCI Bank UK and includes our successors and assigns; and you and your means the account holder.

Account means your savings account with us.

BACS is the Bankers Automated Clearing Service which is a way of making payments directly between banks.

Business Day means Monday to Friday excluding UK bank holidays, which are different to our working days.

CHAPS is a payment via the Clearing House Automated Payment System which allows you to make same-day payments if done by a certain time.

Easy Access ('EA') account is an account where the interest rate is variable, so it can increase or decrease. You can also withdraw your money whenever you want without any notice. RCI Banks Easy Access Account is known as Freedom Savings Account.

Faster payments means near-immediate electronic payments.

Fixed Term ('FT') account is a type of savings account where the interest rate is fixed and cannot increase or decrease. You cannot withdraw your money until the account reaches the end of its term ("maturity").

Internet or Online banking is the service provided and managed online by us via the world wide web at www.rcibank.co.uk.

Joint and several power of attorney is the term we use to describe power of attorney (POA) agreements which are operated on a single signature basis, even when there is more than one attorney. This means you are agreeing that someone can act on your behalf.

Linked account is your UK personal current account you use to make and receive payments from your RCI Bank account. Also known as the 'nominated' account. It cannot be a business account. You can only have one linked account for all your RCI Bank accounts. Please note that you cannot nominate an account held with electronic money institutions or payment institutions (e.g. Prepay Technologies, Loot, Pocket, Tide, Wise or similar providers).

Mobile App is the service provided by us via our mobile app, available on apple apps.apple.com and google play play.google.com

Notice account ('NA') is an account where you can only withdraw your money after you give us the required days' notice. The notice period is in the name of the product, e.g., '14 Day Notice Account'. The interest rate is variable and can increase or decrease.

Online account means an account which may be operated via internet banking.

Receivership Order is a UK court order granting a third party the rights to operate your account on your behalf.

Standing order means an instruction to a bank by an account holder to make regular fixed payments to a particular person or company.

United Kingdom refers to the countries of the United Kingdom only and excludes Crown dependencies and British Overseas Territories.

Variable Rate means that the interest rate on your account can move up and down.

Working day means the days our office is open, which are Monday to Sunday excluding UK bank holidays.

Your correspondence address means the address which we hold for the first named account holder or such other address of which we are notified where the account is held under a 'joint and several' power of attorney or receivership.

If we use any definitions in the singular, it will mean the same in the plural, and vice versa.

- 1.2. The person(s) named in the application will be the account holder(s).
- 1.3. Once your account is open, we'll give you access to it in line with the agreement.
- 1.4. You can't open an account if:
 - a) It is for a business, charity, club, or association;
 - b) Your linked account is for a business, charity, club, or association;
 - c) Your address is 'care of' or not within the UK;
 - d) You, or any other account holder, do not live in the UK for tax purposes;
 - e) It is for a trust or settlement, including will trusts; or
 - f) You don't meet the age requirement;
 - g) We can't confirm your identity, permanent address, or any other specific requirements for the account as explained in the account opening information..
- 1.5. You can cancel your agreement with us within 14 calendar days of account application. You can cancel your account by sending a request by email to hello@rcibank.co.uk or by post to 'Freepost: RCI BANK' (that's all, no stamp or address details needed).

We can move your balance to an RCI Bank easy access account or return your money without charge. If your first payment was made by cheque, we'll return your money electronically and close your account once the cheque has cleared.

2. How to make deposits and withdrawals

You can transfer money in and out using your linked account as long as you use your RCI Bank account reference code.

- 2.1. We don't accept cash or bankers' drafts and all payments need to be in sterling. Payments received in all other currencies will be returned. Any foreign exchange charges will be deducted from the payment amount.
- 2.2. To pay in and out of your account with us, you need to set up and use a linked account or another RCI Bank savings account, either an easy access or notice account (subject to the notice period).

You can't pay funds into your easy access account from a fixed term account unless your fixed term product is maturing, and you've selected an easy access product as your maturity option.

Your linked account must be a UK bank or building society current account in your name. You can only have one linked account at any one time, and this will be used to make and receive payments to and from all the accounts you hold with us. Please note that you cannot nominate an account held with electronic money institutions or payment institutions (e.g. Prepay Technologies, Loot, Pocket, Tide, Wise or similar providers).

2.3. To pay into your RCI Bank savings account from your linked account using BACS, CHAPS, Faster Payments, and Standing Order:

- a) All payments into your account must use your RCI Bank payment reference. If the payment is made without a correct payment reference the funds will be returned to the originating bank account. If we hold a mobile number for you, you'll also receive a text message to confirm. Please note if we receive your payment after 6pm you may receive text confirmation the following day.

- We'll apply interest from the day we receive your money, but if we receive your payment after 1pm it won't show on your account until the next business day;
- Your first deposit may take up to 24 hours to show in your new account while we check your identity. We are also legally required to check all applications against lists of names that allow us to combat money laundering and the financing of terrorism.
- On weekends, bank holidays and seasonal holidays add extra time accordingly.
- You can also use a personal cheque to make your first payment into a new account. These will show in your account from the seventh business day (due to the cheque clearing process).

- 2.5. If we change our interest rate, we'll let you know by email (or by post if we don't have a valid email address for you).
- 2.6. When you request a transaction, you're agreeing for us to act on your instructions.
- 2.7. We may limit the maximum investment you hold with us for one or all of your accounts in accordance with our account summary information. .
- 2.8. We may choose not to act on your instructions without explanation if, in our opinion, to do so may be contrary to regulations or laws.
- 2.9. If you change any details (for example, your name, address, email address or bank account details) you must let us know as soon as possible. We may need evidence before changing your details.
- 2.10. We'll contact you by phone, post, email, and secure message. All post will be sent to your correspondence address. We'll contact you by phone in the first instance if there are suspected or actual fraud, or security threats, relating to your account with us.

- 2.12. If you choose to contact us by post or email, please don't assume that we have received it unless we confirm receipt. We recommend using tracked delivery if you are contacting us by post.
- 2.13. Where there are transactions on your account, we'll provide you with an account statement, free of charge, at least once a month. You can also view and download an account statement whenever you're logged in to internet banking or view only in the mobile app. We can also provide additional printed statements or special formats on request on 0345 6056050* or hello@rcibank.co.uk.

*Monday-Thursday 8am-8pm, Friday 8am-6:30pm, Saturday 9am-5pm and Sunday 10am-4pm.

Calls are charged at local rate and may be recorded for monitoring and training purposes.

2.14. Information we may request from you

We may ask you for certain information for regulatory or compliance reasons. When we ask for this, it must be provided within the time we have given you. We may also request information or documents about the source of your funds when needed.

3. Our charges and fees

Information about the services we charge for.

- 3.1. We may also make charges for non-standard services provided on your account - we'll let you know in advance. We may update our charges to reflect changes in reasonable expenses and costs.

All standard fees and charges are mentioned in the Account Information Summary, available at rcibank.co.uk/help-and-support/legal-centre/your-agreement and you can request a copy at any time.

- 3.2. If any funds appear in your account that you weren't expecting, you must let us know and return them to us as soon as you're aware. We may decide to remove funds from your account without notice if they were transferred to you in error.

4. Joint and Power of Attorney accounts

You can normally apply to have an account with another person provided you comply with the terms and conditions. If you do, you're both in charge and both responsible for the account.

- 4.1. You agree that we are permitted to act on the instructions of either account holder or their attorney;

- 4.2. All account holders and attorneys are bound by the Agreement and are fully responsible for all transactions made. You're also responsible for all instructions given on the account and any money which may become due;
- 4.3. We can't remove or otherwise change the access of an account holders or attorney to an account unless we receive acknowledgement from all account holders and attorneys in writing; we'll provide the forms upon request.
- 4.4. As you're joint account holders, any one of you can give us instructions, including withdrawing the full balance and closing the account, without the knowledge or agreement of the other account holder(s);
- 4.5. All joint account holders and attorneys will receive communication and information about the account, including notification of monthly statements and account services;
- 4.6. Together and separately, you're all responsible for complying with the terms and conditions of your account and are fully responsible for any money which may become due to us under them.

This means we have the right to request payment of the full amount of any money owed to us, not just a share of it, from any one of you.

5. Operating your account and keeping your account secure

Take responsibility for your account, access, and security.

- 5.1. To manage your account, you must use a valid and current personal email address that only you have access to and which you're entitled to use (for example, not your employer's email address).
- 5.2. You can find applicable interest rates for each of your accounts by logging onto internet banking. Ask us or visit rcibank.co.uk/help-and-support/legal-centre/your-agreement for current and previous interest rates. The daily interest rate is 1/365th of the annual rate and interest will be credited to your account monthly or annually upon your choice.
- 5.3. You're responsible for the security of the email address and device you use to access internet banking and to ensure that it is protected from unauthorised attempts to gain access to your account. We strongly recommend using up-to-date virus checking and firewall software. We also recommend that you do not use public computers where your information could be found.
- 5.4. You mustn't attempt to, interrupt or interfere with the working of our website or internet service in any way whatsoever; this includes hacking, tampering with security or any other disruption.
- 5.5. We aim to be there when you need us but cannot always guarantee the availability of our online service, website or mobile app.
- 5.6. Links provided to other websites from our website are solely for information and we're not responsible for their content.

- 5.7. We may suspend the service available to you if the following apply (and/or we have reasonable grounds to believe that):
- a) You're not adhering to the Agreement;
 - b) You've acted fraudulently or negligently;
 - c) Someone else is trying to access or use your account;
 - d) Your User ID and/or security details may be known to or used by someone else;
 - e) The relationship between us has broken down as a result of your conduct, for example, you have acted with abusive or threatening behaviour towards our staff;
 - f) If laws and regulations change, the legal and/or regulatory conditions change and/or we're ordered to by a legal or regulatory body or court;
 - g) It may cause us to break the law (such as we have a reasonable suspicion that the funds are the proceeds of crime) or a contractual duty;
 - h) Your account is being used for an illegal purpose;
 - i) There is a dispute about entitlement to the money in the account that we reasonably believe to be genuine; or any other reason to safeguard your and our interests.
- 5.8. If we 'lock' your account for any reason, we'll notify you in writing as soon as possible (unless we're legally prevented). We'll resume the service once the issues have been resolved.
- 5.9. If fraudulent activity is suspected or has been found on your account, we may ask you to report the matter to the police and obtain a crime reference number. We may give the police or other financial crime agencies any information they need during an investigation to help them in finding out whether someone else is using or has used your User ID, password, or your security details.
- 5.10. If you allow another person or persons to manage an account (for example, via a third party, 'joint and several' Power of Attorney, Receivership Order etc) you are responsible for the actions or omissions of the attorney as if they were your own. We won't be responsible for any loss or damage where you've allowed a third party to manage your account.
- 5.11. Your account is a non-payment account. This means you can't use it to make day-to-day payments to third parties.

6. Closing your account

You can close your account by withdrawing your total balance. If we close your account, we'll give you notice.

6.1. You can close your account through internet banking at any time.

6.2. We understand that losing a loved one is a difficult time. If an account holder dies, please get in touch - we'll need to see the original / certified death certificate and either a completed Grant of Probate (for balances of £35,000 or more) or a completed small estates form (for balances under £35,000). Our team is here to support you through this process.

For joint accounts, the balance will automatically pass to the surviving account holder, and the deceased account holder will be removed.

6.3. Reason we might decline or suspend your account

We can decline to open accounts or decline deposits in our sole discretion, and we reserve the right to not enter into communication or discussion.

Your main residency must be the UK, so we'll need to close your account if you move abroad. If you're moving abroad for a short period of time and keeping your UK address and linked account, please get in touch with us as soon as possible and we shall consider your circumstances.

6.4. We may also close your account after giving you 30 days' notice if there are good legal, regulatory, or commercial reasons for it. Without prejudice to any other terms and conditions, we may end the agreement and close your account with at least 30 days' notice for any other reason. This will not affect our obligation to pay you interest up until the date of termination.

We won't enter into communications for the closure of your account. We may end your agreement immediately if you're in breach of this agreement or any other agreement with us.

6.5. We can close your account without notice if we've been unable to confirm your identity or we reasonably believe that:

- a) You've been abusive or threatening to our team;
- b) You're not eligible for the account;
- c) The security of the account has been compromised;
- d) You've given us false or incomplete information in connection with the account;
- e) You've moved abroad;
- f) Your account is being or has been used illegally;
- g) You haven't provided the information we need for regulatory and compliance purposes within the time we have given you;

- h) You've been in serious or persistent breach of the terms and conditions of your account; or your account has been identified as being dormant in accordance with this agreement.
- 6.6. If we close your account, we'll repay the money in the account to you, together with all interest. If your identity has not been confirmed, we must return the money to the account the funds came from.
- 6.7. We can stop you making any transactions on your account temporarily and without notice where we are required to do so by law or for any of the reasons referred to in this agreement.
- 6.8. We can close your existing account and open a new one if the security of your account has been compromised.
- 6.9. We can move your account to another savings account with us if we believe it is appropriate for you or there are good commercial reasons for doing so – for example, if we decide to stop offering your account. We'll give you at least 30 days' notice if we're going to do this. In the meantime, you'll be free to close your existing account straightaway and without being charged.
- 6.10. We'll do everything we can to keep our agreement with you. However, if something unexpected happens which is beyond our control and stops us from meeting our agreement, we won't be responsible.

7. When we'll make changes to the terms and conditions

You can't change the terms and conditions, but we can - we'll let you know if we do.

- 7.1. You're unable to change the agreement at any time.
- 7.2. We can change your agreement for reasons you'd expect, such as responding to changes in laws and regulations, legal and regulatory requirements, best practice, our business, service, products etc. If we make changes which don't negatively affect you, we'll let you know in writing with no notice; otherwise, we'll give you at least 30 calendar days' written notice. At the end of this period, the amended agreement shall apply.
- 7.3. We can transfer and/or assign all or any of our rights or obligations under the agreement and your accounts and deposits at any time. We may provide any potential transferee with any information we hold about you and your accounts. If we transfer our rights the transferee can exercise and enforce our rights only to the same extent as we could before the transfer. Any transfer will not affect your guarantees or rights under these terms and conditions.
- 7.4. We can make changes to the terms and conditions of your account for any one or more of these reasons:
 - a) to take account of changes in technology or the systems we use (including developments in digital banking) and changes we may make in the way we look after your account;

- b) to meet our legal and/or regulatory compliance requirements, any change in the law or decision by an Ombudsman, code of practice or legal and/or regulatory guidance
- c) to make them clearer or more favourable to you or to correct errors;
- d) to make the terms and conditions of our products consistent with another provider;
- e) to introduce or remove services or features to the account.

7.5. If we make changes which don't negatively affect you, we'll let you know in writing with no notice; otherwise, we'll give you at least 30 calendar days' written notice. During this notice period, you will be free to close your account without charge. At the end of this period, the new agreement comes into effect.

8. How we use your personal data

We respect your data and mainly use it to stay in touch. We also use online databases to confirm information you've provided.

- 8.1. We'll check your application by searching records held by credit reference and fraud prevention agencies. These agencies provide credit and electoral roll information and can confirm your identity. Other organisations will see that we searched to check your identity. It will not impact your credit score.
- 8.2. We and other organisations access and use information from fraud prevention and other agencies from other countries to prevent fraud, money laundering and other criminal offences. This may include, applications for credit or other facilities, recovering debt, checking details on proposals and claims for insurance, checking details of job applicants and employees, copy of all the information held on file about you.

We share information about you to tax authorities and HM Revenue & Customs, who may share information with the other authorities. This information could include the account number, balance, any interest payments to the account, your name, address, country of residence and tax reference for that country.

You can request a copy of all the information held on file about you. Please write to us at: "Freepost: RCI BANK" (that's all - no stamp or address details needed).

- 8.3. These agencies may link your records with your financial associates. Links between financial associates will remain on your file until such time as you successfully disassociate with them and update the credit reference agencies.

9. If you give us incorrect information

- 9.1. If you provide false or incorrect information and fraud is identified, we will pass your details to the relevant fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information.

- 9.2. We collect information about applicants on RCI Bank systems and use this to process your application, service your account, business activity and testing new IT systems.
- 9.3. We'll only process personal data you provide to us in line with the Data Protection Act 2018, the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003, (as updated from time to time) and other applicable privacy laws, as amended from time to time.
- 9.4. If you're liable to pay tax in a country other than the UK or have a tax liability outside of the UK, we may provide details of your accounts with us to the tax authorities of these other countries if legislation requires us to do so.

10. If you spot any errors in your information, we can help you correct it – just get in touch.

- 10.1. For a detailed summary about the information we collect, how this information is used, your rights under data protection laws and more, please read our Privacy Policy, which can be found here: rcibank.co.uk/help-and-support/legal-centre/your-agreement.

We may monitor or record your phone calls for training, quality checking and other business activity.

11. If an unauthorised transaction happens

You take responsibility for how you bank, and we'll take responsibility for making sure your money is secure and available when you'd like it.

- 11.1. If an unauthorised transaction occurs then based on these terms and conditions, we'll return your account to how it was before the issue happened.
- 11.2. Under the terms of this agreement, if we don't carry out a transaction correctly on your account, we'll return the account to how it was before the issue happened.
- 11.3. If you believe you've found an issue as described in clause 7.1 and 7.2, you must let us know as soon as possible after becoming aware of the transaction.
- 11.4. If we receive a transaction from your linked account, but we fail to comply with our legal obligations in relation to crediting your account, we will immediately make available the amount of the payment to you.
- 11.5. We can, if you ask us to, immediately and without charge, make efforts to find any incorrect transactions free of charge and we will notify you of the outcome.
- 11.6. We're not liable if we do not act on your instructions for any reasons set out in the agreement or if we cannot carry out our responsibilities to you because of:
 - a) Something outside of our control and/or something we cannot reasonably control (for example, internet banking failure not caused by us);

- b) Your breach of this agreement;
- c) Legal or regulatory requirements where complying with legal or regulatory compliance obligations mean we can't act on your instructions;

Any other reason which means we can't continue with this agreement due to circumstances or changes which were not known at the time we entered into this agreement or would change the basis upon which we entered into this agreement.

- 11.7. In the absence of fraud or gross negligence from us, we won't be liable for any loss or damage incurred by you arising directly or indirectly from us acting on your Instructions or you using our service. You're responsible for making sure that the device and line you use to contact us on has not been open to abuse from other people.
- 11.8. You'll be liable for reasonable losses incurred because of failure to keep the security of your account safe, and you'll be liable for all losses incurred as a result of any unauthorised transaction on your account where you have acted fraudulently; or have acted with intent or gross negligence or failed to comply with the agreement.

12. General

These things may not fit into the above categories, but they're just as important:

- 12.1. The account will always be your property or, upon your death, will become part of your estate, no matter how many years have passed.
- 12.2. Money in your account cannot be derived from or connected to any illegal activity.
- 12.3. If we waive any breach of these terms and conditions that shall not be considered to be a waiver of any subsequent breach.
- 12.4. We don't have to recognise any third party's interest in the account unless a court order prevents otherwise, nor will we be liable for failure to do so.
- 12.5. Your account may become dormant if we see no activity or contact from you for a reasonable period.
- 12.6. We'll respond to any request to gain access to dormant account funds in a reasonable and timely manner to confirm the eligibility of the claimant in line with our current Dormant Account policy. The British Bankers Association has produced a leaflet entitled 'Dormant Bank Accounts - how banks handle losing touch with personal customers', available from them or us on request.

13. Reimbursement for Authorised Push Payment Scams

13.1 From 7th October 2024, new regulations have strengthened protection for customers who suffer financial loss due to Authorised Push Payment (APP) Fraud. APP Fraud occurs when a criminal tricks a person into authorising a payment by creating a convincing but false reason for the transaction. If you have made a payment on or after the 7th of October using the Faster Payments (FPS) or CHAPS (Clearing House Automated Payment Scheme) within the UK, you may be eligible for a refund of up to £85,000 in the event of an APP scam. You must submit your reimbursement claim within 13 months of the final scam payment made.
